Project Title: Tea Website

This website will be built as multiple pages of subtopics that are broken up into smaller sections. For example, one page will be on processing and preparation of different types of teas, such as black tea, oolong tea, etc.

- Home Page – introduce the aesthetic of the website and set up a grid for navigation between the pages (navigation throughout the rest of the website can be done from a navigation bar)
- History – brief history of tea
- Types of Tea – black, white, yellow, green, oolong, and different types of packaging (tea bags, loose tea, etc.)
- Flavored Tea – floral flavors: jasmine, rose, mint, spices (masala chai)
- Tea Culture – Chinese & Japanese tea ceremonies, tea in the UK, culture of hospitality in middle east and other countries, Indian tea culture, sweet tea in southeastern US
- Sources – Wikipedia page and photo sources
